

Η Ελληνική Επανάσταση 1821

Με το χέρι του Παναγιώτη Ζωγράφου, με το «στοχασμό» του Μακρυγιάννη

Η έκθεση παρουσιάζει την σπάνια συλλεκτική σειρά με σκηνές από την Ελληνική Επανάσταση που εξέδωσαν ο Frédéric Boissonas και ο Ιωάννης Γεννάδιος το 1926. Η σειρά αντιγράφει πιστά τις σκηνές που διάλεξε ο στρατηγός Μακρυγιάννης και που εικονογράφησε κατά παραγγελία του ο Παναγιώτης Ζωγράφος από το 1836 μέχρι το 1839.

Η έκθεση οργανώνεται από το Ελληνικό Κέντρο του Λονδίνου υπό την αιγίδα της Επιτροπής Ελλάδα 2021 με την χορηγία της Κυρίας Εντμέ Λεβέντη.

Οι ημερομηνίες της έκθεσης θα ανακοινωθούν προσεχώς.

The Greek Revolution 1821

The Hand of Panagiotis Zographos, the Mind of Makrygiannis

An exhibition of plates illustrating scenes from the War of Independence. The plates from a limited edition prepared in 1926 by Frédéric Boissonas and John Gennadius reproduce the famous originals of 1836-1839 commissioned by General Makryiannis from Panagiotis Zographos to illustrate his own history of the war.

Organised by the Hellenic Centre under the aegis of the Greece 2021 Committee, sponsored by Mrs Edmée Leventis.

Dates to be confirmed.

On the Footsteps of Lord Byron: John Frederick Lewis in Greece and Albania. Briony Llewellyn will introduce John Frederick Lewis (1804-1876), famed for the meticulous detail and jewel-like colours of his Orientalist paintings. In 1840, Lewis travelled through Greece and Albania on his way to Constantinople, and made numerous very striking watercolours of the people and places that he encountered. Charles Newton has pieced together Lewis's journey, and he will take up the story with an examination of what inspired him to take the particular route that he followed.
